

Pearson and BBC Live Classes

What are Pearson and BBC Live Classes?

Pearson and BBC Live Classes is a unique worldwide project for teenage students and their teachers.

In an exciting partnership between Pearson and the BBC, the Live Classes give students a unique opportunity to enter an online language classroom. English becomes so much more than a classroom subject – it's an essential tool to communicate with other students from all over the world.

The project is free and equally available to every group and encourages teachers and students from different countries to come together in an international project. The students not only speak English and improve their communication skills, but they also get to know each other, learning respect and tolerance of diversity.

What's new in 2020/2021?

As a result of the current situation, most of your English lessons take place online, and therefore, Pearson and BBC have developed an alternative solution for schools and students that are teaching and learning remotely.

BIG LIVE LESSONS for individual students

Developed for individual students joining the lesson on their own, at home, BIG Live Lessons are recommended for distant teaching, as a solution for schools and students during this period.

Who is the project for?

The project is available to all teenage students and their teachers across the globe.

Students, who:

- are between 9 and 19 years old
- are eager to communicate in English
- need to be motivated and engaged
- want to meet students from other countries

Students will need

- good internet connection
- preferably a laptop / desktop computer

Teachers will need

- to fit the lesson into their timetable
- to register for their class

How to join the project?

Here are two simple steps teachers need to follow to join the project:

1

CLICK HERE to choose and register the best lesson for your group considering your students' age and level.

2

FOLLOW the instructions you receive in the confirmation email to prepare for the lesson in advance

10 GOOD REASONS

to join Pearson and BBC Live Classes

1. Students gain a unique chance to enter a global project.

2. Students have an opportunity to interact with other teenagers from around the world.

3. Students get a chance to explain their reality, learn tolerance and respect to diversity.

4. Teachers provide an authentic, motivating learning experience to their students.

5. Teachers can innovate their teaching methods for online and offline classes.

6. Teachers can make relationships with other groups worldwide.

7. Schools gain kudos by participating in a unique, international developed by worldwide leaders in education and media – Pearson and the BBC.

8. School authorities can further develop their reputation in the eyes of Ministry officials, parents and future candidates.

9. Everyone can benefit from high-quality learning experience and good fun.

10. Everyone has a chance to join our worldwide learning community to use English outside the classroom.

A finalist in British Council's ELTons 2020 Award

We are proud that Pearson and BBC Live Classes has been announced a finalist of 2020 ELTons award in Innovation in Learner Resources category.

* ELTons is the British Council international award. It recognizes innovative products, projects and solutions that help learners and teachers around the world achieve their goals and shape the future of English language teaching and learning.

Over 10.000 students have joined
Pearson and BBC Live Classes
by now

Most teachers

rate the project excellent

Nearly

700 schools
from 39 countries
attended the project
so far

We have run
150
Live Classes
between 2018 and 2020

Join our community at english.com/liveclasses